ANNOUNCEMENT.

The proprietor of THE PROGRESS today signed an agreement to transfer the printing plant and good will of the business to other hands on the 17th of January, when the business connection of the present management ceases. Further particulars will be given later. This will necessitate the closing and payment of all accounts. Those owing the office for subscriptions or job printing must make a settlement of their accounts. To be plain—we have earned the money, it is our due; and therefore we expect payment.

GOVERNMENT BY MINORITY.

Our friend, Mr. Levi Thomson, returns to the above subject in this week's Progress. We are sorry to find him quibbling as to the "constitutional practice" in reference to tenure of office of the Dominion and Provincial Governments. These are appointed as was the Territorial Board by the Governors calling upon men to form them. The "practice" is identically the same in each case. Cabinets undoubtedly hold office at the pleasure of the governors, because their resignations must be accepted by the governors before they take effect. The case of Governor Letellier settled nothing. His action was prompted by political feeling, and political retaliation settled him. If the Dominion Government of the day had been of his own political stripe, no doubt his action would not have been interfered with.

Surely Mr. Thomson does not mean to deny that it is an "undoubted right" of every British subject to be governed by the majority where representative institutions prevail. We cannot understand why a gentleman of the high intelligence of our esteemed correspondent should condemn the stand of the majority, and by so doing approve the action of the advisory council in retaining office against the expressed will of the majority. The position taken by the opposition in which he claims they went "too far," was conditional upon the retention of the cabinet system. From $1 a better, as he $5. Less than I read a day.

Had they resigned when called on to do so their constituents would not have had a shadow (all it is) of complaint, and the advisors themselves would have received the approval of the country. Their tenacious clinging to office was not in vindication of any principle or right, but rather their violation.
They were disloyal to the best interests of the country, and did all in their power to hinder its political development and progress. If they had any other motives than sinister one they have not been discovered.
Such being the case the action of the majority was mild chastisement indeed for their political wrong-doing.
We are reluctantly led to ask whether their sympathy with the advisors is not of a kind with that morbid sympathy which in these days is extended to the condemned criminal because he is receiving the just deserts of his crimes.

THE QUEEN'S LATEST OFFER.

A FREE EDUCATION OR ONE YEAR'S TRAVEL IN EUROPE.

In The Queen's "Word Contest," which the publishers of that magazine announce as the Last One They Will Ever Offer, A Free Education consisting of a Three Years' Course in any Canadian or American Seminary or College, One Entire Year's Travel in Europe, all expenses to be paid, will be given to the person sending them the largest list of words made from the text, which is announced in the last issue of The Queen. A special deposit of $750, has been made in The Dominion bank of Canada, to carry out this offer. Many other useful and valuable prizes will be awarded in order of merit. The publishers of The Queen have made their popular family magazine famous throughout both Canada and the United States by the liberal prizes given in their previous competitions, and as this will positively be the last one offered, they intend to make it excel all others as regards the value of the prizes. Send six two cent stamps for copy of The Queen containing the text, complete rules and list of prizes. Address The Canadian Queen, Toronto, Canada.

Commissioner Herchmer wired the Superintendent-General of Indian Affairs in reference to the alleged existence of Indian runners from the United States in Canadian territory. Inspector Cuthbert, who is now on Pica-pot reserve, says that on reaching the reserve on Saturday he found sixteen Assiniboia Sioux, fourteen of whom were identified as having come from the Indian Head reserve on a visit to Pica-pot. They were at once sent back to the reserve and there is nothing to show of any Indian south of the line, being in Canadian territory.

—One day last month Hugh Munro, a Woodstock drayman, came home drunk, and when his little boy asked for more milk at supper the brutal father knocked him off the chair. The mother remonstrated with the brutal father for his conduct, for which he dealt her a blow with his fist on the cheek.
When remonstrated by his mother, he grabbed a chair and chased his wife and her children out of the house. The magistrate, after hearing the evidence, imposed a fine of $5 and costs.

HEALTH IS HERE.

Health-giving herbs, barks, roots and harries are carefully analyzed in Birkbeck Blood Purifier, which regulates the secretions, purifies the blood and removes and strengthens the entire system. Price $1 a bottle, as

AN ENTERPRISING RELIGI- OUS WEEKLY.

We have received from the Publishers of The Presbyterian Review, Toronto, a copy of their handsome 16 page illustrated Prospectus for 1891. The Review has always been a very able and bright religious newspaper, strongly but not narrowly denominational, and as such has attained to wide and increasing popularity. The Prospectus before us shows that it has determined to make great advances during the coming year in catering to the Presbyterian public. It promises advancement "all along the line." A guarantee of this is seen in the splendid list of over One Hundred special Papers on no dry-as-dust but present-day topics, to be written for it by some of the most eminent men in the Christian Church both at home and abroad. Among those in Europe we may mention, Dr.
Cunningham Gaskie, Dr. Parker, Dr. Murray Mitchell; in the United States, Dr. Cuyler, President Patton, Dr. Pierson, Dr. Knowles, President Dwight, Prof. Green; in Canada, Principal Caven, Principal Grant, Principal MacVicar, Dr. Cochran, Prof. Scrimger, Dr. McNish and scores of others. Undoubtedly The Review is right in claiming that no such list of able contributors and attractive subjects has ever before been offered by any religious journal in Canada. It is rightly described by a contemporary as "brilliant." Readers of the Review during 1891 may depend on having served up to them 52 appetizing literary banquets. Any one of these articles is alone worth the subscription price, $1.50. The publishers, as if determined to introduce their paper into every Christian household in the country, offer in addition a most tempting Club and Premium List.
Such legitimate enterprise deserves to succeed. We would advise all our readers to send for a Prospectus and a specimen copy of The Review to the publishers, Presbyterian News Company, Toronto.

A FORTUNE IN ONE MACHINE.

A celebrated press-builder of the United States admits that one of the greatest printing-presses yet produced will be furnished to the Family Herald and Weekly Star, Montreal, a paper that has distinguished itself by the weekly papers on this continent. The Family Herald goes on the principle of thoroughness in every department, and that is why it is such a standard authority today the world over. Well done, Canada. The Family Herald and Weekly Star, Montreal, is to be congratulated.

You've tried Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, have you, and you're disappointed. The results are not immediate.

And did you expect the disease of years to disappear in a week?
Put a pinch of time in every day.
You would not call the milk poor because the cream doesn't rise in an hour? If there's no water in it the cream is sure to rise. If there's a possible cure, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is sure to effect it, if given a fair trial. You get the one dollar it costs back again if it don't benefit or cure you. We wish we could give you the authors' confidence. They show it by giving the money back again in all cases not benefited, and tell surprise you to know how few dollars are needed to keep up the refund.

Mild, gentle, soothing and healing is Dr. Sargent's Catarrh Remedy. Cures the worst cases permanently. No experimenting. It's "OLD FASH-IONED" Twenty-five years of success.

Ellisboro, Dec. 18th, 1890.

To the editor of THE PROGRESS:

Sir,—I had no intention of replying to any criticism of my former letter, but you seem to forget that my questions referred to the "constitutional practice" in the Dominion and the provinces of Canada.

The legal rights of the executive heads I have not called in question.
You say with regard to some of these rights that they do not exercise them. If they do not exercise them they are not in accord with the constitutional practice. The fact is, the rights you claim for them are as much legal fictions as the old-fashioned conveyances to Roe and Doe ever were. I think no Government has attempted to exercise any of them under the present Canadian constitution except the right to consider the council as holding office during his pleasure, and the fate of Lieutenant-Governor Letellier settled that question.

You claim to answer my first question in the affirmative, but before you get through with it you show that the Governor merely calls on a leader selected by the dominant party. That is equal to a negative answer. You do well to call his approval of the government selected a "formal approval." It is very much a matter of form.

I feel bound to contradict your assertion that I don't doubt the rights you call in your article "undoubted rights," and they are not only doubted, but scouted by most of those who have publicly expressed their opinions in the matter.

You say I have not made it clear why I think the majority at Regina have gone "too far." I think they went too far when they denied the members of the council the ordinary rights of private members. Their own position and that of the Northwest would certainly have been better had they contented themselves with voting down any propositions made by the members of the council by virtue of their position as members of the council.

The majority did not "treat the members of a discredited government as though they had resigned," but they treated the constituents of those members as though they had not the undeniable right to representation in the house.

Thanking you for the space and courteous treatment accorded my former letter, I promise to make this my last letter on the subject for the present at least.

Yours respectfully,

LEVI THOMSON.

Qu'Appelle, Dec. 19th, 1890.

To the Editor of THE PROGRESS:

Sir,—In the letter which Mr. Ferry wrote to you some weeks ago, in answer to Mr. Meeser, in order to "illustrate" what he called "a more excellent way" of effecting the oneness of the Church, he said, (excuse the length of the extract, but it is necessary to give it in full.)

"In my last parish in Nova Scotia, during part of October, 1887, I had to be from home attending our Synod, and on Sunday, 9th of that month a brother minister, Episcopalian, took my pulpit both services of that day. I gave him his choice to use his own Hymnal and Prayer Book, but he preferred to pursue the course the congregation had been accustomed to. And let me say that as ministers we did not by any means see eye to eye, but we remembered the Master's words:
'One is your Master, even Christ, but all ye are brethren.' And lest my Nova Scotia brother should not be regarded as 'orthodox' by Mr.

Meeser, who thus speaks of Canon Ferry in his last letter, let me give another instance:

"In the absence of the pastor of St. James' Church, Charlottetown, the pulpit was occupied on Sunday morning last by the Rev.
Dr. Fitzgerald, late rector of St. Paul's Episcopalian Church of that city. Throughout a long ministry Dr. Fitzgerald has endeavored to all denominations by his firm adherence to evangelical truth and by his cordial sympathy and co-operation with his brethren of other churches. The appearance of Dr. Fitzgerald in a Presbyterian pulpit is a manifestation of the growing tendency among all earnest Christians to emphasise the essential unity of the Church of Christ."

"Now, Sir, I submit that the judgment, the intelligence, as well as the true Christian character of the public, will agree with me in saying that such conduct on the part of Christian ministers will do far more to make our fellow-men love the Savior than all the Sacra-mentalism that can be presented."

As I was convinced that there must have been something in these cases, besides what was stated, to make such extraordinary action on the part of clergy, which is undoubtedly contrary to all the Canon Law of our Church, possible, I wrote to Mr. Ferry, to ask him if he would kindly inform me what was the name of the parish alluded to in the first case. Mr. Ferry answered me, saying that he must refuse to give me the name of the parish, unless I would tell him the reason of my asking such a question.
Not liking the tone of Mr. Ferry's letter, I resolved not to trouble him any further, but to find out for myself. I therefore wrote to the bishop of the diocese in which it was alleged these incidents had happened.
The Bishop of the Nova Scotia diocese has been unfortunately very ac-cruently ill for some time, but this morning I received a letter from Dean Gilpin, of Halifax, in which he encloses a letter from the clergyman first alluded to by Mr. Ferry.
Your readers may like to see his version of the "more excellent way." It is as follows:

"THE RECTORY,
"Bridgewater, Nova Scotia,"
"Dec. 10th, 1890."

"MY DEAR DEAN,
"I have been pastor of Holy Trinity Church in this town for the last 20 years. Some three or four years ago the church was visited for repairs. To my great sorrow the work occupied much more time than we had hoped to expect.
During this time the Presbyterian minister, Mr. John Ferry, had to leave home, and he very kindly lent me the building for the Sunday. Some of my people sat in the front seats and took up the responses. I went there, put in my sur-plice, used our usual Sunday morning service from the Prayer Book, and went through the Church of England service. As to the hymns, they were from our own books. To pass these facts over he suggested to state it now as having been an exchange of pulpits is to put a false color upon the whole matter."

"I remain, etc., (Signed) W. E. GELLING.
"This may be made use of in any way that seems good."

"W. G."
The other clergyman mentioned, Dr. Fitzgerald, is retired and holds no license in the diocese, and is not therefore amenable to the ordinary process of church discipline.

I leave your readers to judge whether Mr. Ferry was justified in quoting these cases in the way in which he did.

Yours faithfully,
A. MEESER,
Bishop of Qu'Appelle

MOOSE JAW.

Several Sioux warriors left here Monday for Fort Qu'Appelle to join the Crees in their war dance. The mounted police are following them and will probably force them to return.

SUMMERBERRY.

On Tuesday evening, the 30th inst., an entertainment is to be given in the Town Hall to procure funds for a public library in Summerhill school District, south of this place. A varied and interesting program has been prepared, and the Rev. F. V. Baker, of Grenfell, has kindly consented to give a magic lantern exhibition illustrating a trip from England to India. Entertainment begins at 19 o'clock. Admission 25 cents.

ALAMEDA.

A farmers' institute will be organized here next week. A grange will also be started a short distance north of Alameda.

Through the neglect and incapacity of the agricultural society the Dominion grant has not been received yet and general dissatisfaction exists.

Engineers of the C. P. R. have been here twice this fall and it is believed that the crossing over Moose Creek has been finally located and that the road will be built next season.

Threshing is completed and machines are laid up for this season. The yield has not been large nor the sample No. 1. We had a sufficient quantity of rain, but it came too late to benefit the crops in this district.

The coal business has been booming at the coal fields this fall. The output from Messrs. Price & McKay's mine for the last five weeks will average about one hundred tons per week. Part of the time day and night gangs were at work. They mine the coal and leave it ready to be loaded into the wagons for $1 per ton. They have erected a building near the mine and put a stove in it for the accommodation of the public. The manner in which these gentlemen have conducted their business has given satisfaction to the public.

DON'T MISS IT.

A new and attractive publication containing many up-to-date and interesting features has just been issued by B. C. Beuch & Co., of Toronto, under the title of the "Pioneer Home." It is the first of the "Pioneer Home" series, and is for 1894. It is one of the hands of the series and is one of the hands of the series.

WHITEWOOD.

—H. A. Wiley and H. Dayman were brought to the magistrates yesterday and charged with unlawfully firing the parrot. Having no defence they pleaded guilty. The magistrate, Mr. Campbell, let them off with a very light fine of $25.

The farmers are very busy hauling their grain to market. The town is crowded with teams every day. The price of wheat remains low, from 47c to 55c being the average and some as high as 60c, while some who have really first-class are holding till the price goes up.

On Wednesday last two of those pestilential fire bugs started a prairie fire, about two miles east of town, and in consequence of a slight wind and extreme dryness of the grass, in a few hours it had travelled over the whole township, 36 miles, sweeping down everything in its path, besides doing incalculable damage in the way of destroying all the splendid feed for the hands of cattle now roaming the prairies. The following farmers sustained severe losses: F. Cosgrave, hay in stacks, to the value of $75; Wm. Elliott, hay in stacks, to the value of $25; and Wm. Lucas, whose farm lay in the direct line of wind caught the full force and got all his hay and straw stacks burned, besides stables, some implements and a quantity of grain already begged for market, to the total value of $200. Luckily a heavy frost fell the same evening and the fire burned itself out, or otherwise there is no knowing where it would have stopped. During the prairie fire on Wednesday there was only Mrs. Lucas and a baby 18 months old on the farm. Mrs. Lucas succeeded unaided in moving almost all the household furniture, etc., to a place of safety, losing all the cattle from the stable, and then fought the fire for nearly two hours being relieved eventually by A. Kirby a neighbor. They managed to save the dwellinghouse, otherwise the whole of this farm building would have been a total wreck.

GRIF'S ALMANAC FOR '91.

Some of our readers have not yet possessed themselves of copies of this, the latest issue of Grif's celebrated annual. Thus they have up to date deprived themselves of a literary and artistic feast which would only cost them 10 cents apiece. The Almanac this year is, in the opinion of many, the best of the twelve issued. It is full of bright original fun and capital pictures. The double-page cartoon is a very amusing burlesque of Meisner's celebrated painting 1807, in which are introduced caricatures of a great number of Canadian public men. The chronological tables are immensely funny, and in fact the entire contents are good. A few copies yet remain unsold, and we would advise our friends to send the price to the publishers without delay and secure copies before the supply is exhausted. Send now.

—We notice that a combination of newspapers and journals, comprising the American Farmer, of Fort Wayne, Ind., The Farmers' Review, of Graham, N. Y., The Ladies' Bazaar, of Toronto, and The Northern Messenger, of Montreal, in order to increase their circulation, is being offered in a prize competition embracing $2,000.00 in gold to any person sending in one dollar. Many of our papers are giving great inducements just now, and this appears to be the best we know of. We have no room to fully explain the product but our readers can learn full particulars by sending a three-cent stamp to B. C. Beuch & Co., Inc., of Toronto. There is a splendid opportunity of getting a ladies' journal, a farm journal, a ladies' journal, a good semi-monthly paper for the home together with a good prize in solid cash, for the small sum of one dollar. It will pay our readers to send a three-cent stamp to B. C. Beuch & Co., Inc., of Toronto, for particulars.

WELCOME, ONE AND ALL.

Half kind and loving friends, welcome, one and all!
Glad bells are ringing, sweet their echoes fall;
Joy, like a fairy queen, while she glides a-fair, Dances into every heart a smile and song.
Hail, dearest friends, the closing year is telling, How we have waited to greet their merry light; Now they are here, and we can not help but Welcome them with glad and loving heart.
If the one we long to see will visit us to-night, Hail, kind and loving friends, O how glad are we;
These fond voices, cheering us again to see;
What tho' the moments glide, like a fleeting day, Long will we remember them when far away.

Once more we welcome you, welcome, one and all!
Our faces, faces, faces, faces, faces, faces, faces, Come, join our festive mirth, sing with all your powers; O, let your hearts be strong and glad as ours,
And the world will be a joyous place;
Pace lovers' love, on throned white and fair; Angels of love still their chorus now are swelling, Chime away, ye silver bells, 'tis Christmas everywhere!
Hail, kind and loving friends, Gaily still we sing, Light as the song birds on their golden wing; Now let the merry laugh wake the echoes round, Ring out the Christmas tune, with joy profound!

LITTLE SOLDIERS.

O we are little soldiers,
And tho' not very old,
We mean to live for Jesus,
And win our crowns of gold.
We know He makes us happy, And loves us all the day;
We'll be His little soldiers,
The Bible says we may.
We have our precious Savior, Because for us he died;
We want to serve and praise Him,
And stay close by His side.
He gives us every comfort, And hears us when we pray;
We want to live for Jesus,
The Bible says we may.

We now can do but little,
But that we'll do with joy;
We'll always follow Jesus,
We find it sweet obey.
God help, and make us faithful,
In all we do or say;
We want to live for Jesus,
The Bible says we may.

GLORY IN THE HIGHEST.

Sing the angels' song to-day, Glorious in the highest;
'Tis the earth's jubilee day,
Glory in the highest;
Sing the song of praise aloud, Let the heav'n as reflect the sound, Send the echo round and round,
Glory in the highest.

Sing the angels' song again,
Glorious in the highest;
Praise our earth, and we'll to men,
Glory in the highest;
Over the mountain and the plain,
Send the sweet melody strain, Joy comes, in our hearts to reign,
Glory in the highest.
Sing the angels' song of love,
Glorious in the highest;
King of kings his name above,
Glory in the highest;
Jesus, we would come to Thee,
With our song of praise to thee, Waiting upon thee Thee,
Glory in the highest.

THE BELLS OF TIME.

Oh, the bells of time are chiming softly
Like a song that's sweet and low,
And we hear the bells of time and listen To the sounds that mean to show.
We can hear the bells of time sending The sound of a new day's dawn, And a feeling warm and strangely mingled Holds our hearts secure to dawn.

Chorus—Oh, the bells of time are sweetly chiming, On their throats sweetly swell, Like a song of time with sweetest rhyming, Ever ring the sweet time bells.

While the bells of time are chiming softly,
Like a song that's sweet and low,
Let us work with loving hands, Let us strive to help our weary traveler, Painting on life's burning sands, Let us seek kind words whose hearts are sad and low.
Happier words whose hearts are glad;
Walk we make a song of joy and gladness,
To the music of the bells.

JUST THE SAME TODAY.

Have you ever heard the story Of the babe of Bethlehem, Who was wrapped in the angels,
And the shepherds lay to rest, How he brought the angels down In the temple far away, O, I'm glad, so glad to tell you,
He is just the same today.

Chorus—He is just the same today,
He is just the same today,
He is just the same today,
He is just the same today.

Have you ever heard the story,
How he was laid upon the sea,
To his dear disciples, saying,
On the waves of life I'll be,
How the waves in anger met him,
Quickly he was washed away,
O, I'm glad, so glad to tell you,
He is just the same today.

Have you ever heard of Jesus,
How he was laid upon the sea,
To his dear disciples, saying,
On the waves of life I'll be,
How the waves in anger met him,
Quickly he was washed away,
O, I'm glad, so glad to tell you,
He is just the same today.

HAVE YOU HEARD?

Have you heard the angels' story?
Have you listened to their lay?
"Christ is born, the Lord of glory, Born in Bethlehem to-day."
Have you seen the heavenly stranger Lodged in the manger-lair?
With the woodmen shepherds round him,
Who were sadly, some afraid?
Have you learned the wonder-story?
Laid it up within your heart?
Lived for Jesus and His glory?
Chosen this, the better part?

LAMBS OF THE FLOCK.

We're the lambs of the flock,
And no danger we fear,
When the voice and the call Of our Shepherd we hear.
We are tiny and weak,
But our Shepherd is strong,
For his robes he'll defend us, Keep us all the day long.
Oh, the pastures are green,
And the flowers bloom around,
By the waters so still,
Jesus lets us lie down.

A SOURCE OF JOY.

Dear Sirs,—My young sisters were attacked by croup so badly that we almost despaired and had little hope of saving them. At last we bought Hayward's Yellow Oil and to our great joy it cured them perfectly, and they now enjoy the blessings of perfect health.

ASSIA JOHNSON, Dalhousie, N.B.

HIGH TIME.

When weakness, loss of appetite, lack of energy and other symptoms of dyspepsia appear, it is high time Baidock Biscuits were made use of. These are nothing else "just as good." It is B.B.B. that cures dyspepsia, so be sure you get it.

WINTER SPORTS.

The gay winter sports excite many to attacks of colds, coughs, hoarseness, tightness of the chest, asthma, bronchitis, etc., which require a reliable remedy. The King-Yan's Patent Balsam for their relief and cure. Known as reliable for over thirty years. The best cough cure.

DO.

you read the MONTREAL WRITERS? Is a question which thousands of men and women are being asked just at this time in Canada. The reason is that the value of this paper is above all question. It is well written, and is a compilation of all that is being done or thought in the world. It is well worth fighting for the right. Whether you are old or young it will interest and all who live in the same house with you. This year it offers several attractive prizes for increasing its already large circulation. One of these is the "Lending Library plan," whereby every subscriber, by taking this paper may become a member of a lending library which shall have five or many good good books for him to same time conferring a benefit on all subscribers, who may be induced to read it. One of the most attractive features of the WRITERS, which is peculiar to it alone in Canada, but which has been adopted in the United States on the same basis as first laid down by the Montreal WRITERS, is the prizes offered to scholars in public schools for the best true stories of life and adventure in Canada. From east and west to the Atlantic and to the Pacific Ocean, including New Zealand, the last island of the Gulf, have come stories, some of which have been written in all sorts of brilliant and noble style, and many of which can be read with the same interest as the best of the world.

YOU.

WITNESS.

to the excellence of these stories are the judges in each province who select the prize, and the inspectors and trustees of schools in every section of the Dominion and Newfoundland, as well as the newspaper, who speak kindly of them and republish some of them. In addition to the Hints and Questions and Answers department, the Montreal WRITERS, the Daily and Evening Editorial Articles, the Social Stories, and, in fact, the whole body of the paper, makes it a welcome member of the family in every household where it is taken. In November the WRITERS was enlarged by more than a page, thus making an enlargement equal to two pages a week, within two years of its first issue to its value and interest. The WRITERS is mailed free to subscribers in Canada, Great Britain, and the United States for $1.00 a year; the Daily WRITERS for $1.00 a year; and the Sunday WRITERS for 25 cents a year. The Publishers are Messrs. JOHN DUNN & SON, to whom you may send your subscription, or who will send you a sample copy of another copy.

Cheap Reading for Farmers.

We have made arrangements by which we are enabled to offer THE NOR' WEST FARMER in conjunction with our own paper at a greatly reduced rate. THE NOR' WEST FARMER, which was established in 1882, is still the only agricultural paper printed between Lake Superior and the Pacific Coast, having in that vast territory a much larger circulation than all other agricultural publications combined.

It is an illustrated paper, devoted to Live Stock, Dairying, Veterinary, Grain Growing, Poultry, Forestry, Gardening and every other detail of Northwest Farming, written by practical, experienced men of long residence here, and is specially adapted to the conditions of this region, to the farming of which it is the only paper in Canada exclusively devoted. Complete and accurate market reports are among its special features.

It is a journal that should be read by every man cultivating an acre of land, or owning a domestic animal in Manitoba, or the Northwest Territories. As its name implies, it is edited especially to meet the requirements of the Great Fertile Belt of the Northwest. It is like valuable to the Farmer, Rancher, Dairyman or Gardener.

THE PROGRESS (subscription $1.00 a year) and THE NOR' WEST FARMER (subscription $1 a year) will be sent to any address, for one year, on receipt of $1.60 a saving of 40 cents being thus effected on the price of the two papers.
